THE HOTEL BEDFORD SOLD.

Messrs. C. L. and H. L. Denoon have sold for the United Banking and Building Company the handsome hotel property, known as "Hotel Bedford," at Bedford City, at the price of $35,000. The purchasers will at once begin extensive improvements, which will probably make this one of the most attractive summer resorts in Virginia.

DR. MEADE NOT IMPROVED.

A reporter called on Dr. W. H. Meade yesterday and found him not resting so well as yesterday. He will not be able to fill his pulpit at St. John's Church Sunday. The pulpit will be filled, but it was not known yesterday who will be called on to do it.

PLENTY OF BEGGARS.

I. D. McClintock, on Seventh avenue s. e., said six able-bodied men called at his house the other day while he was away, in body, and roughly demanded something to eat from his wife. He said they got very sullen on being refused. Numerous reports of bands of tramps ranging in size from two to six are reported around.

NEXT THURSDAY.

The "Deestrick Skule" of fifty years ago at the First Baptist Church next Thursday night, February 18. Tickets are on sale at Massie's and Stone's drug stores. 25 cents.

GOES TO NORFOLK.

Rev. M. E. Broadus leaves this evening for Norfolk, where he will be engaged in the interest of the Southwest Virginia Institute. He will preach there Sunday. Dr. Broadus will also visit Roanoke and occupy the First Baptist Church there. —Bristol News.

NOTICE, RAILROAD MEN.

All members of the Federated Railroad organizations are requested to meet at Odd Fellows Hall Sunday evening, February 14, at 2 p. m. Important questions to be considered.

REPORT OF THE SELF-HELP SOCIETY.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, writes to The Times that the Self-Help Society of that church has been in operation about one month, during which time it has assisted twenty-one families, distributing 169 loaves of bread and nine gallons of milk, besides meat. It has supplied little sick children with fresh bread and milk daily and also mothers who have needed these things for their little ones.

Any little child under 6 years of age will be supplied with these things daily, irrespective of denomination. Seventeen of the families already helped, and no connection whatever with the Presbyterian Church. If they are needy they will be assisted to the extent of the society's power. Several little children in the same family will be supplied at the same time.

Orders for bread and milk and meat can be gotten from Mrs. J. H. Earman, 418 Roanoke street, any day except Sunday before 11 o'clock. Bread is 1 cent a loaf; milk 2 cents a quart, and meat 2 cents for half a pound. The society will consider it a favor if persons needing help are directed to it.

A SOCIAL EVENT.

The appearance of the Alleghany Dramatic Association and Mandolin Club at the Y. M. C. A. hall Friday, February 19, will be quite a social event.

We still receive our cream from the Polytechnic Institute. Our ice cream will satisfy you. Try it. J. J. Catagni.

HOW IT WAS DIVIDED.

The proceeds of Monday night's performance of the Projectoscope, as advertised by Manager Beckner, were divided among the charitable organizations as follows: Mrs. Frank Huger, president of the Circle of Mercy, $15; Mrs. J. No. Sexton, president of the Catholic Benevolent Society, $15; J. L. Mullen, Third ward Relief Association, $10; Miss Lucy Addison, president of Colored Presbyterian Relief Society, $10. Mr. Beckner explained that the last-mentioned donation was made through the influence of Rev. Dr. Campbell and a lady very prominent in benevolent work.

THE SERVICES OMITTED.

The weekly prayer and praise service at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. was omitted last night on account of the revival services at the St. James Church, which are exciting great interest and meeting with much success. To-morrow afternoon Rev. Dr. Broughton will deliver an address at the West End Y. M. C. A. building to men on "Selling Out."

COL. TAYLOR'S CONDITION.

The many friends of Col. Geo. P. Taylor will be sorry to learn that he has suffered a relapse and is now again critically ill. At last reports he was resting fairly well, but it is feared on account of his advanced age, he being 93 years old, that he cannot recover.

HUSTINGS COURT.

In the hustings court yesterday in the cases of Sam Ford and Lettie Lewis, indicted for perjury, denunciations to the indictment were sustained. A warrant was, however, issued for the rearrest of Lettie Wood on the charge of perjury.

WANTED FOR STEALING MONEY.

Sergeant Tillet received a message yesterday that William Meadows, who is wanted here for stealing money, had been arrested in Bristol, and was held there subject to his orders. R. T. Boswell left on No. 3 yesterday afternoon to get him.

DEATH OF JOSEPH D. TERRY.

Postmaster W. P. Dupuy received a telegram from El Paso, Tex., announcing the death of Joseph D. Terry, son of J. C. Terry, of Bent Mountain, this county, which occurred at the above place Thursday evening. Joseph D. Terry was about 21 years old and a most promising young man. A graduate from Hampton-Sidney he got the appointment at Annapolis in the United States navy, but was compelled to resign about a year ago on account of his health. About eight months ago he went with his mother to El Paso in hopes that a change of climate would restore his fast failing health, but the roots of that dreaded disease, consumption, were too deep rooted. The news of his death was not a surprise to his friends here, who knew of his serious condition.

Y. M. C. A.

"Has a Person the Right to Commit Suicide?" will be the subject of Rev. Ira W. Kimmel's address at the men's meeting in association hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The choir of the Christian Church will be present, and render choice selections and R. M. Kent, Jr. will sing the sweet solo, "In Thy Cleft, Oh Rock of Ages." Both ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to attend this service.

LARGE CROWDS WERE THERE.

The projectoscope at the Academy continues to draw large crowds. Yesterday afternoon between 800 and 1,000 persons were present to see this wonderful child of Mr. Edison's genius. Perhaps this rare entertainment has drawn larger audiences than anything that has been in the city for some time. The school children present at yesterday's matinee were very appreciative of the life-like pictures thrown on the screen, and seemed to be fully aware of the wonderfulness of the performance. We bespeak a large audience for to-day's matinee and to-night's performance, these being the last chances our people will have to witness this wonderful advance of modern science.

NEXT SUNDAY will be the last opportunity given to secure a copy of the "Book of the Builders" with Worlds, Journals and Herald at Jack's news depot.

PUPILS' RECITAL.

A fair sized audience greeted the pupils at the Virginia College, both yesterday afternoon and evening and to say that they were well repaid for their visit would but feebly express the enjoyment that was depicted on the face of every member of the audience. The afternoon recital, as explained to a reporter last night, is more intended for themselves and the parents of the pupils and the night exercises were more liberally attended. The young ladies arranged in tiers presented an array of loveliness that could hardly be eclipsed and the storm of applause that greeted them clearly showed that their beauty was not "wasted on the desert air." The feature of the evening was the vocal solo by the young debutante, Miss Marie Stormteltz, entitled "Daddy," by Behrend. This young lady has a most wonderful voice for one so young and her almost perfect rendition of a very difficult solo brought forth a ring of vociferous applause. The duet by Misses Bessie Silverthorn and Grace Whitehead deserves special mention for their splendid rendition of one of Hoffmann's difficult pieces, "Were I a Gardener," was also well received, as was piano solo "Berceuse," by Miss Letitia Marshall; piano solo, "The Nightingale Sings," by Miss Mary Middleton and the vocal solo by Miss Elsie Knobloch. Everyone present expressed themselves as highly delighted with the performance and the entertainment certainly reflects great credit upon the Virginia College and the well qualified teacher, Mrs. Silverthorn.

Mr. Simonides Swanhopper and Mr. Lawrence Lavender will take part in the Alleghany entertainment at Y. M. C. A. hall next Friday evening.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

J. L. Lattrell was arrested yesterday for stealing from Mr. Danner who had left him in charge of some things he had in the Southern Hotel. Officers Rigney and Griffin have been working on the case for some time and succeeded in locating most all of the stolen goods.

SOCIETY MEETING.

The Literary Society of the National Business College held its weekly meeting yesterday and was highly enjoyed by the members and visitors who were present.

VERY CROOKED OFFICERS.

A Boston Receiver Files a Report Exposing Their Rascality. Boston, Feb. 12.—Receiver H. A. Wyman, of the defunct Globe Investment Company, filed to-day a report with the superior court, setting forth the frauds perpetrated by the managers of the company, one of whom, C. J. Lowell Moore, the treasurer, is serving a three years' sentence for embezzlement. The president, Allison Z. Mason, has pleaded guilty to a similar charge and will be sentenced soon.

According to the receiver's report the company collected $500,000 and failed to pay the owners. This amount is approximately $633,000. They sold mortgages twice to the extent of $100,000, pledged mortgage papers belonging to others, failed to discharge mortgages paid, issued debenture bonds upon fraudulent securities, the sale of property acquired by foreclosure to the Globe Investment Company, of Nebraska, of which the officers were the same, and taking mortgages back on the same properties at increased valuations, the mortgages being used as collateral for the issue of debenture bonds, the foreclosure and extension and renewal of mortgages with the knowledge of the owners and the illegal use of funds.
